

1618 UNDERSTANDING OPERA - MAGIC FLUTE

Nancy Seel

Is it a fairy tale, or an allegory, or a beguiling story of lovers in jeopardy? The opera lovers in this class will attempt to investigate some of the interpretations of the symbolism of the bizarre libretto by Emanuel Schikaneder, and revel in the glory of Mozart's charming score. The composer has ingeniously combined a consistently entertaining mix of popular tunes, high-art arias, solemn drama and bel canto display (think Queen of the Night). So much to do, so little time.

Kent Ira Groff

When life expectancy was only 35, you were an elder in your twenties. If 70 is the new 50, is 50 the new 30? Or is it the other way around: is 20 the new 40—younger adults mentoring elders in a high-tech world? Together, through questions and stories, films, and poetry, we explore contemplative practices for transforming stress or depression into purpose and gratitude. Discover ways to mine gifts in transitions—the two-sided coin of loss and change.

Maximum enrollment: 20. Minimum age: 18.
